

AFCTS Announces “Online” Access to Account Information
April 11, 2006

In a continuing effort to provide unsurpassed client services, American Funeral & Cemetery Trust Services (AFCTS) of Beaverton, Oregon, the country’s leading provider of ‘Master Trust’ and “Trust Administration Services”, is pleased to announce the availability of “Online” computer access of account information to funeral homes and cemeteries around the United States.

This new client service was developed at AFCTS by Steve Buss, Computer Services Manager, and allows all funeral homes and cemeteries nationwide to view individual consumer contract data online at any time.

Online services are available immediately to all AFCTS client funeral homes and cemeteries. To obtain more information about this new service, please contact Chuck Wetmore, Director of Client Relations & Corporate Development toll free at 800-769-9363.

With the recent additions of Ohio, Texas and Florida, AFCTS has now established “Master Trusts” in 13 States and offers “Trust Administration Services” in all 50 U.S. States. Additional information about AFCTS services, products, and staff is available at www.AFCTS.com
