

Released April 28th 2006

Julian King named as AFCTS Western Regional Representative

Beaverton, Oregon - Robert Baird, President of American Funeral & Cemetery Trust Services (AFCTS) announced Thursday, April 27th the appointment of Julian King of San Diego, CA as the new AFCTS “Western Regional Representative”.

AFCTS is America’s premier “Master Trust” service for preneed funeral, preneed cemetery and endowment care funds. AFCTS provides “Master Trust” services to 13 States from California to Florida. AFCTS also provides “Trust Administration Services” to all States including the State of Hawaii.

Mr. King has a distinguished career in funeral services and health care; he is a graduate of Wayne State University - College of Allied Health and Pharmacy - Dept. of Mortuary Sciences and holds a national certification from the United States Funeral Service Examining Board.

Julian has spent many years in Sales and Management with the largest financial services/preneed company in the United States and several years with the nation's largest casket manufacturer. He has spent the past several years with Bio Medical Device/Transplant Companies in Arizona and California.

Julian makes his home in San Diego, California. He is the father of two daughters and currently serves on the Arizona State Board of Embalmers and Funeral Director's Continuing Education Committee, Arizona Coalition on Donation and various other groups.

Hal Martin, Founder and CEO at AFCTS said, “We are extremely pleased to have Julian represent AFCTS in California and the Western States. It is rare to find someone who possesses the skills and experience necessary in both funeral service and financial services; Julian is a great addition to our expanding company.”

AFCTS – American Funeral & Cemetery Trust Services is America’s premier provider of “Master Trust” and trust administration services in the country. You may contact Julian by calling the AFCTS office at 1-800-769-9363.